Democratic candidates find it difficult to stick to the track.

The same old story comes from telegraphic circles. Both sides are confident of victory.

There was no perceptible tipping of the earth when J. W. Mackey landed in this country. This probably surprised him.

General Butler will visit the south the coming winter, which once offered $10,000 for his head. The people down there will not set such a high value on it now.

When Mrs. Langtry arrived in London she was hospitably welcomed by the Prince of Wales. Mr. Langtry does not appear as cordially welcoming her back to Europe.

Washington territory will be infested by the Kalliohs. The father, the ex- mayor of San Francisco, will shortly settle in that territory. What is Washington's loss is California's gain.

The democrats are making queer platitudes this year. In some, the protective side of the tariff plank is right side up; in others, the free trade side is up; and in some others, the tariff plank is on the edge; so that which ever way the election may go, some of the democratic platforms will have been successful.

Men are never grateful—hardly ever—when their gratitude should be the profoundest; and the proof of this is Dorsey's madness. Instead of storming about and threatening to send the whole country for slander and libel, he should be a picture of humility because he wasn't sent to the penitentiary.

Miss Clara Louise Kellogg will leave Europe for this country on the 11th of this month. In the latter part of September she will begin a series of farewell performances in the principal cities of the United States. It now looks as if Miss Kellogg will continue to give these "farewells" annually for some time to come.

During the gubernatorial campaign in this state in 1879, the chairman of the democratic state committee issued an address in which he said the prospects of a democratic victory were so bright as to become embarrassing; but they were beaten by many thousands. There comes from Ohio the report that there is so much harmony in the democratic party in that state that it can't rest. This means that it will be badly beaten.

Speaking about the Queen not being dead-headed on the roads in England, the Inter Ocean says: "During the last ten years Her Majesty's car fare has amounted to $46,820. But she is not exactly an object of commiseration on that account. It she does not have a free pass, the government pays for the harking and unloading of her special train. Some people are just mean enough to think she can afford to pay her own way, but it must be remembered that she is a widow with a large family on her hands, and has an income of only three millions a year, with an already accumulated fortune of £15,000."

There does not seem to be any encouraging sign that the telegraphic strikers will come out ahead in the contest. The country hopes they will, but the telegraphic service has so much improved during the past week or ten days that the company is more firm than ever. While the strikers still cling to strong hold, there does not seem to be much ground for hope at present. It would be a good thing for the business morals of the country if the strikers could sit down on Jay Gould for once. Strikers are bad, as they are antagonistic to the business interests of the country, and it is to be regretted that the settlement of the question of wages, could not be met without resorting to a strike. Judging from the present view of the case, the operators will not gain their point—27 per cent. increase—but will return to their keys if they return at all, for a much less increase than their demand.

It was an admirable piece of journalistic enterprise that brought to the columns of the Chicago News the opinions of some of the greatest men in this country, regarding the administration of President Arthur. Not a single official by appointment under the president was asked to say a word, but the opinions were gathered from prominent in both political parties, and who fill all the professions. In thus drawing out the sentiment of President Arthur's friends and former enemies, there was no intention to work up a boom for him, but simply to get an expression of their views regarding his administration. The answers returned are remarkable ones in many respects. The men who were opposed to his nomination, but were republicans, with the democrats who were severe critics, now join in his praise. The unanimous sentiment is that his administration is an admirable one, and that he is serving the people faithfully, judiciously, and with marked ability. For these reasons, as has been repeatedly stated in the columns of the Gazette, President Arthur will naturally be a candidate in 1894. He never has said a word, and probably he never will, but the sweeping sentiment that his administration has been a most judicious one and acceptable to everybody, will irresistibly bring his name before the convention. Should his nomination be made, he will be one of the hardest men to beat the republicans could possibly select. When the opposition are robbed of campaign ammunition, how are they going to successfully fight the battle?

CRIMINAL RECORD.

A Justice of the Peace Kills His Wife and Then Himself.

Killed by an Officer—Italian vs. Negro—Shot at a Dance House.

New York, Aug. 5.—The Herald special from Norfolk, Va., says: A shocking affair happened at Deep Creek, eight miles from this city, last night. Mr. John R. Simmons, a justice of the peace and a prominent citizen of the county, shot his wife and then killed himself. It seems that the couple had been at variance with each other all day, and at 5 o'clock the bickering culminated in an open quarrel and an assault by Simmons on his wife, during which he drew a pistol on the "bickering" pattern and shot her in the neck. As she turned to run away from him she fell with a shriek, upon the floor, and Simmons, thinking he had killed her, placed the still smoking weapon to his right temple, and fired, killing himself almost instantly. Physicians were promptly summoned to the aid of Mrs. Simmons, but she is lying. Simmons was a prominent man and a knight templar, and a member of various benevolent orders.

KILLED BY AN OFFICER. St. Louis, Aug. 6.—Another fatal shooting by a policeman occurred here late at night. While Officer Goetzky was walking his beat in the neighborhood of Washington and Twenty-third streets, he observed three men acting in a suspicious manner, and when he attempted to arrest them they broke and ran off. The officer gave chase, and to intimidate them, he fired three shots after them, one of which struck Wm. Snyder and passed through his body. He was taken to the hospital and died. This is the second killing by a policeman within a week. The man killed was known to the police as a hard character, and his two companions belonged to a gang of sneak-thieves.

NEGROES VS. ITALIANS. WASHINGTON, Va., Aug. 6.—There's great excitement at Sistriville, Tyler county, on the Ohio river railroad. Negroes and Italians were working together blasting. The negroes put in a blast, and, being notified of the danger, ran to a safe distance. The Italians ran only a short distance. Two Italians were killed. The Italians pursued the negroes with revolvers, picks, and axes, and the negroes drew razors. Further trouble is feared.

CRIME AT SANTA FE. SANTA FE, N. M., Aug. 5.—George Harvey, a gambler, was shot through the liver by one Reed, another gambler, in Moseley's dance-house.

East night a row between Mexicans and Americans in a beer garden resulted in severe injury to nine of the participants. No one was fatally hurt. Knives, stones, clubs and razors were used.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TOURISTS.

Sunday Spent at Green River, Wyoming Territory.

GREEN RIVER, WY., Aug. 6.—On the arrival of the presidential train at Cheyenne a large number of people were at the station and during the short time we stopped there the president, Secretary Lincoln and Senator Vest made a few remarks and were introduced to the officials of the territory. At 9:30 the train moved out from the station under charge of Gen. Supt. Dickenson, of the Union Pacific road. Eighteen miles west of Cheyenne we passed through the summit of the Black Hills of Wyoming, the highest point on the Union Pacific Road, and where has recently been finished a monument to Oakes Ames, one of the original projectors of the road. The train arrived at Green River, Wyo., at 1:30 Sunday, and in consequence of the arranged plan to spend Sunday at this point we have remained quietly on the train all day. In the morning at 7 o'clock we took spring wagons for Washakie and will encamp at night on the Forest Water, one 101 miles north of this point. The next day we will drive into Fort Washakie, fifty-five miles. There are three or four spring wagons. The president, Secretary Lincoln and Gen. Sheridan will ride in number one; Senator Vest, Judge Rollins and Gen. Stager in number two; Gov. Crosby, Mr. George Vest, Surgeon Foreword and press correspondents in number three. We expect to make about ten miles an hour over a fine natural road, and to reach Washakie about 2 p. m. Aug. 7.

Courtney Challenges Hanlan.

New York, Aug. 6.—The Herald has the following: "The editor of the Herald-Examiner, Mr. Edward Hanlan, has publicly stated that he would match six men against Courtney, and named Wallace Ross, George Hosmer, George W. Lee, P. H. Conley, Al Hamorn, and J. H. Gaudaur. I have accepted Mr. Hanlan's proposition, and to show that I mean business I have deposited the sum of $1,500 with The New York Clipper, being a forfeit of $250 on each of six matches for $1,000 a side. Mr. Courtney will row the above six men or any other six in the country." Mr. Hanlan has chosen to row on the time, the hour, and the place of rowing of each of the six matches to be mutually agreed upon hereafter, and it will certainly not be I who will lay any trifling objection in the way of making these matches. Should Hanlan withdraw from his proposition, I should be glad to hear from Lee, who is out of the river he might raise the objection to a match which he previously advanced after challenging Courtney. If the Union Springs man is the poor sculler Hanlan would have every one believe, it would certainly pay him to come east from his hippodroming tour, and make his word good by signing articles for the six matches, as I stand prepared to lose $2,000 over them in stakes money and something additional on bets.

Cut His Head Off.

LAUREL, Pa., Aug. 6.—A mysterious old miser named William Seer had his head struck off here by a train. He had rested on the side of the track and fallen asleep with his head resting on a tie. Neither head nor body was mutilated or touched beyond severance from the trunk.

Smuggled Celestials.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 6.—A Port Townsend, W. T., dispatch says: Seventeen men Chinese were smuggled from British Columbia near here. An attempt to capture them was unsuccessful. This makes the third lot smuggled over the border within a week.

The Hovas surround the French forces at Tananarive, Madagascar, who are unable to advance because of their limited numbers.

CONDENSED NEWS.

W. B. Langridge, a Mason of note, died at Meriden, Conn.

Dr. Raqch, secretary of the Illinois state board of health, says the state is in a good sanitary condition.

Brush fires are raging in many sections of British Columbia, a storm of some note, having a life-preserving armor patented by himself, who in 1877 dove from a staggering 100 feet high, near Perring Landing, Niagara river, now writes to Supt. Neilson, of Prospect Park, Niagara Falls, that he will use his armor and give $5,000 bonds to swim the rapids and whirlpool, doing this any time between now and Sept. 25, and that he desired to make arrangements with the park company, offering to deposit $1,000 with them as security. Neilson wrote declining to be a party to the suicidal attempt. Rhodes then replied that he should come to the falls, and if the authorities would not give the opportunity he would cross to the Canada side, from Capt. Webb's starting point, to show to the world that his life-saving armor will do what he says it will. He says: "It is not for any notoriety or money that I shall attempt it, but purely to demonstrate that the armor I mean to wear will, with my additional strength, carry me safely through. I shall come to the falls within nine days and make my points and carry out my plans, and the first person who shall attempt to retard my progress I will take under my arm and give him a barrel half filled with water, then heated tight and decorated with flags, vent safely through the rapids, and at no time will be entirely submerged."

The Philadelphia authorities refused the use of Fairmount park for a working-man's mass meeting in the interest of the striking telegraphers.

The White Cross Line steamship Ludwig is now sixteen days overdue from Antwerp, and much anxiety is felt at New York for her safety.

Lockport, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Capt. J. B. Rhodes of Saratoga, a virtuoso of some note, having a life-preserving armor patented by himself, who in 1877 dove from a staggering 100 feet high, near Perring Landing, Niagara river, now writes to Supt. Neilson, of Prospect Park, Niagara Falls, that he will use his armor and give $5,000 bonds to swim the rapids and whirlpool, doing this any time between now and Sept. 25, and that he desired to make arrangements with the park company, offering to deposit $1,000 with them as security. Neilson wrote declining to be a party to the suicidal attempt. Rhodes then replied that he should come to the falls, and if the authorities would not give the opportunity he would cross to the Canada side, from Capt. Webb's starting point, to show to the world that his life-saving armor will do what he says it will. He says: "It is not for any notoriety or money that I shall attempt it, but purely to demonstrate that the armor I mean to wear will, with my additional strength, carry me safely through. I shall come to the falls within nine days and make my points and carry out my plans, and the first person who shall attempt to retard my progress I will take under my arm and give him a barrel half filled with water, then heated tight and decorated with flags, vent safely through the rapids, and at no time will be entirely submerged."

The cotton crop in Texas is suffering from drought, and the worm is doing great damage in some sections. In certain districts but half the usual crop will be gathered.

The total receipts from customs for July last were $20,000,200, against $19,500,000 the same month of 1882. This shows an increase of $508,688 the first month of the new tariff law.

A London journal publishes a rumor that Michael Kavanagh, another of the Phoenix Park informers, has been assassinated, but Melbourne advises say he is still on board the steamer Putnam.

The St. Louis beer-sellers evince a disposition to fight the Sunday-closing statute, while the liquor men generally keep their tongues shut. A house and warehouse have been sworn out so far for violation of the law.

A Washington Sunday paper published a story that Mexico had secretly made an offensive and defensive alliance with Germany, by which the latter country receives more advantages than are conceded in the convention with the United States.

The steamer City of Milwaukee when leaving Grand Haven, Mich., and going at a high rate of speed, accidentally ran against the south pier and sustained damages which will take a large amount to repair. It is reported a green land was at the wheel.

War has broken out between a gang of negroes and Italians working on the Ohio river railroad, at Sistriville, W. Va. The negroes put in a blast and failed to warn the Italians, two of whom were killed. The latter are armed with revolvers, dinks, and picks, and the Africans with razors.

Mrs. Capel, the distinguished ecclesiastic, preached his first sermon in America Sunday at the Church of St. Francis Xavier, New York, taking for his subject Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuit order. A great audience gathered to hear the discourse, which was laudatory of Loyola and of the society of which he was a member.

BOSTON LEATHER FAILURES.

Latest Developments Touching the Firms Involved—The Banks Perfectly Sound.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—The suspension into Saturday of the leather house of Hersey, Whittey & Wyman causes considerable uneasiness. A careful analysis of the situation, however, shows no cause for general alarm. It is possible the firm will pay all its liabilities in full, and that Lewis N. State, of Seattle, special partner to the amount of $100,000, will be able to save a portion of his capital. With the exception of Hersey, Whittey & Wyman, the only real failures have been F. Shaw & Bros. Other concerns are doing a solvent and profitable business, but their statements will probably show that they can pay only 20 cents on the dollar. In such case their liabilities are on notes, on which F. Shaw & Bros. appear. The liabilities of F. Shaw & Bros., chiefly on two-month paper, are about $3,000,000; liabilities of C. H. Copeland & Co., C. H. Ward, S. C. J. G. Phinney, Macomber & Greenwood, and C. W. Clement about $3,000,000. But it would be entirely erroneous to say that the total liabilities of the failed firms is $5,000,000, for the debts of these last are simply joint liability for the main portion of Shaw & Bros. debts. The banks are the principal creditors of all the suspended firms, but their paper is so widely distributed that no institution is at all shaken. In Boston the bank holding the largest amount of this paper, if it should prove a total loss, the profit and loss account of the institution would wipe it all out, without having recourse to the surplus fund, to say nothing of the capital. The failure of Hersey, Whittey & Wyman is not expected to bring about any fresh disaster.

Knight Templars Going West.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The Knights Templar of Baltimore and Washington, who propose to attend the meeting of the Grand Conclave at San Francisco, will leave in a special order the Baltimore & Ohio railway. This train will be made up of six sleeping coaches, a dining and baggage car, and will be one of the handsomest of the railroad equipment ever run from Baltimore. It will go through to San Francisco and return as a special train. About 100 persons will make up the company, including about fifty ladies. The Maryland and District of Columbia grand commanders officers will be of the party.

Boston, Aug. 4.—The Boston Commandery Knights Templars, 180 strong, with ladies, left via the Fitchburg railroad, to attend the twenty-second triennial convocation of the Grand Encampment of the United States at San Francisco.

New York, Aug. 6.—The New York State Battalion of Knights Templars will leave this city for San Francisco. The battalion will be in charge of Sir John S. Bartlett, grand commander, and will act as an escort for the officers of the state grand commandery.

Fisherman's Luck.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The President's son, Allan H., made a brilliant reputation among the Canadians as a salmon angler, having succeeded in killing forty of these game fish during his recent trip through the dominion. Permission was given him to cast his flies in the waters of the Upper Cascapedia river, where he had an unobstructed run of luck, as these waters had not been overworked by fishermen. Six and a half pounds was the weight of the smallest salmon, and the largest turned the scale at forty-five pounds. President Arthur's record as a salmon fisher has been eclipsed by his son, who has an outfit second to none in the country for this description of sport. The Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise took considerable pains to make the American feel at his ease while he was in Canada, and insisted upon his spending a portion of his vacation with them at Quebec. It was a suggestion of the Marquis that Allan Arthur should fish in the Upper Cascapedia, and he had not a beautiful garden. Gold and silver medals are offered by the association for exhibits in this department, the success of which is already assured. The finest museum in the country has been secured, at an enormous expense, and will be on exhibition this fall.

Altogether, the Milwaukee exposition this fall will be well worth visiting, and no one should fail to take advantage of the low rates offered for the excursion. The prices of admission remain the same—twenty-five and fifteen cents, one price admitting the visitor to all parts of the building, as there will be no extra charge to any of the departments, notwithstanding the fact that the exposition association has been to enormous expense in many instances to secure desirable attractions.

GOING TO MEET WEBB.

Two More Men Want to Court Death in the Rapids at Niagara.

Lockport, N. Y., Aug. 6.—Capt. J. B. Rhodes of Saratoga, a virtuoso of some note, having a life-preserving armor patented by himself, who in 1877 dove from a staggering 100 feet high, near Perring Landing, Niagara river, now writes to Supt. Neilson, of Prospect Park, Niagara Falls, that he will use his armor and give $5,000 bonds to swim the rapids and whirlpool, doing this any time between now and Sept. 25, and that he desired to make arrangements with the park company, offering to deposit $1,000 with them as security. Neilson wrote declining to be a party to the suicidal attempt. Rhodes then replied that he should come to the falls, and if the authorities would not give the opportunity he would cross to the Canada side, from Capt. Webb's starting point, to show to the world that his life-saving armor will do what he says it will. He says: "It is not for any notoriety or money that I shall attempt it, but purely to demonstrate that the armor I mean to wear will, with my additional strength, carry me safely through. I shall come to the falls within nine days and make my points and carry out my plans, and the first person who shall attempt to retard my progress I will take under my arm and give him a barrel half filled with water, then heated tight and decorated with flags, vent safely through the rapids, and at no time will be entirely submerged."

ANOTHER.

Lockport, Aug. 6.—Behrli, the professional swimmer, and a rival of Capt. Webb, announces his intention of attempting to swim the Niagara Falls whirlpool. He says he believes he can safely breast the pool, and he believes Webb could have done it if he had gone about it properly. Behrli has witnessed every successful swim ever made by Webb, and believes himself to be a stronger man in the water than Webb was. He is practicing in the Thames daily, and intends to test the most dangerous pools and tides and the strongest waves before departing for the United States. Arriving at Niagara, Behrli will locate himself upon a shore of the rapids for the purpose of studying and testing them by daily plunges. He will make numerous weights equal to his own and throw them into the rapids at all the dangerous points for the purpose of ascertaining the precise tendencies and actions of the waves and currents. When he has completed his observations and practice he will set apart a day for his attempt to make the swim, in which Capt. Webb lost his life, and he states his firm belief that he will succeed, and do so without becoming much exhausted, claiming that the undertaking will depend more upon his knowledge of the water, his power of mind and careful management of the body than upon any exercise of strength, for which, he argues, there will be but little use.

ANOTHER CHANCE.

A Kentucky Criminal Given a Chance to Retrieve His Good Name.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 6.—Governor Blackburn pardoned from the Penitentiary Clarence Rutherford, sent for life from Logan County for a murder committed in 1881. Rutherford, when first sent to prison, was in subordinate, and was frequently put in iron for his bad conduct. When the evangelist, Geo. O. Barnes, conducted a series of meetings in the prison in 1882, Rutherford was one of the prisoners whom the wife of Governor Blackburn had brought to the meeting with from on as he walked into the prison chapel. After listening several times to the powerful exhortations of Barnes, Rutherford, with tears pouring down his cheeks, dragged his manacled body to the altar, and, grasping the minister's hand, said: "God helping me, I will endeavor to become a better man and a dutiful prisoner." Since then, by the kindly aid of Mrs. Blackburn and other ladies of the prison Sunday school, he has been one of the best prisoners within the walls. Subsequent to his conversion he was confirmed within the prison by Bishop Dudley, of the Episcopal church. While Rutherford was in jail at Russellville Jesse James and his gang were in the neighborhood, and through certain influences were to plan his rescue, but nothing came of it, owing to the failure of certain members of the gang to show up, and the weakening of Rutherford's brother, who dreaded the cost in bloodshed to follow. Rutherford was never thought of in connection with the James gang, these desperadoes being simply utilized on account of their convenient presence.

The Milwaukee Exposition.

The third annual exhibition by the Milwaukee industrial exposition association, which opens on September 6th and closes on October 20th, promises to be far ahead of former years, extra efforts having been made by the management to secure new and novel exhibits for the occasion. The magnificent building will be filled to overflowing with an unprecedented display. The art department will be up to the usual high standard, claiming the attention of visitors by the choice pictures adorning the walls, many of the most famous artists of the world having contributed to the galleries. The machinery exhibit promises to greatly exceed anything yet presented, the demand for power being so great that the exposition association has been compelled to put in two extra engines in addition to the large "Corliss" which has done all the work of the last two exhibitions. This year the exhibitors generally, wherever practicable, will run their manufacturing in the building, thus demonstrating how an article is made. This will prove a great attraction, and cannot fail to please as well as instruct. This conservatory will contain a fine horticultural display, and be laid out as a beautiful garden. Gold and silver medals are offered by the association for exhibits in this department, the success of which is already assured. The finest museum in the country has been secured, at an enormous expense, and will be on exhibition this fall.

Altogether, the Milwaukee exposition this fall will be well worth visiting, and no one should fail to take advantage of the low rates offered for the excursion. The prices of admission remain the same—twenty-five and fifteen cents, one price admitting the visitor to all parts of the building, as there will be no extra charge to any of the departments, notwithstanding the fact that the exposition association has been to enormous expense in many instances to secure desirable attractions.

Through Palestine by Water.
 The conversion of Jerusalem into a seaport is a project which would shock
 the religious sensibilities of Englishmen, if their associations with Bible countries had not become so hard and prosaic.
 The mission of Cyprus, the scene of the first missionary journey, was looked upon at first as a good stroke of business on the part of Lord Bessborough, and subsequently as a bad investment, its trade being inconsiderable. Its value was left for the Suez Canal of small reference. An experienced traveler goes to the summit of Ararat because it is a more conspicuous exploit in mountain-climbing than the well-known Alpine passes offer to venturesome spirits, and consequently will make a thrilling chapter in a book, and not because he has a suspicion that the keel of the Ark ever grounded there. A year ago a campaign was conducted in the ancient land of Goshen and a stronghold stormed on the site of one of the cities of bondage, and in the ruins of the temple and the palace, the conqueror and administrator of the empire, no leisure was left for the contemplation of the religious associations of the signs and wonders of Egypt. Railways have been planned between the Jordan and the coast, and the sole consideration has been whether they would pay dividends on the cost of construction. In like manner this new project for constructing an inter-oceanic canal through the Holy Land and the region beyond the Dead Sea is regarded in England only in its practical aspects of utility and availability as a water-way to India.

As the details of the scheme are received in the Times (London), the reposed canal is to unite the Mediterranean and the Gulf of Akabah, the eastern arm of the upper waters of the Red Sea.
 A great trench is to be hollowed out from Haifa, in the Bay of Acre, through the plain of Asdopolis to the valley of the Jordan, tapping the Lake of Galilee.
 The course of the river will be diverted lower down for the sake of converting Jericho and Jerusalem, and possibly Bethlehem as well, into saltwater ports, or half-way houses on the canal. Beyond the Dead Sea lies a desolate region seldom traversed by European travelers, through which a canal will have to be cut to the Gulf of Akabah. It is a sandy valley, and was once the bed of a sea, and now abounds in scorpions and serpents—an uninhabitable desert waste. The entire water route from sea to sea, including the Jordan, salt marshes, or bitter lakes, will measure two hundred miles, and varying in width from two hundred feet to ten miles, will float vessels of the largest size to the Mediterranean to the Red Sea. While the projectors refer casually to the prophecy of Ezekiel that there is to be a broad sea in the heart of the desert and that "the fishers shall stand upon it" from Engedi even unto Engedi, their sacred associations have little to do with their scheme of an inter-oceanic canal through Palestine. They talk lightly of draining the Lake of Galilee, changing the course of the Jordan, increasing the business facilities of the Dead Sea. They are prepared to pay $5,000, 000 as recompense to the natives whose property may be injured by the submerging three hundred square miles of the Holy Land. As for the losses in religious veneration and sacred feeling, they roughly estimate that these would be amply compensated for in the revival of business activity.

It is not probable that the present generation will witness the consummation of this scheme. Even if M. de Lesseps does not enlarge the Suez Canal, British ship-owners and capitalists will not favor a water route of two hundred miles through Palestine when another only half as long can be found on the isthmus. Nevertheless, a company has been formed, with the Duke of Marlborough as chairman, to raise sufficient capital to convert Jerusalem into a seaport and to convert Jerusalem into a stirring place of business. — N. Y. Tribune.

Books as Furniture.
 "What are books worth a dozen—good ones, you know—stand and right up to the mark—for cash?"
 This question was propounded by a somewhat over-dressed man in an uptown book-store. The emphasis which he placed upon the phrase "for cash" revealed the esteem in which he held that article as compared with the commodity for which he intended to exchange it.

"Do gentlemen often buy books by the dozen?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, yes," replied the salesman,
 when his customer had disappeared.
 "I have been sent for several times this year to measure the shelves of libraries in new houses, to find out the number of books required to fit them up. Books are an important item in house furnishing. The comfortable, old-time sitting-room has made way for the formal library. As a library without books would hardly do, house owners are bound to have them whether they possess literary tastes or not. Besides, they add tone and color to the room. A customer recently said to me, frankly enough: 'I don't pretend to read anything except the papers, but there's a home feeling in having books around;
 they look like, too, and sort of encourage the children.' He told me to be sure and 'chuck' in a few big ones to put on the tables."

"The customer who just went out ordered books for eight four-foot shelves.
 He said that he did not care much for literature, but that nowadays a library was almost as necessary as a billiard room. All buyers are not so frank in speaking about the matter. The majority not only want books for their decorative qualities, but to give an appearance of culture."

"Another harmless fellow who wanted the reputation of a man of culture always directed us to put in some books that had been used a little. He once told me that he was bound to have a library as big as his neighbor's, and whenever the latter ordered a new stand-up showcase he was going to do the same."

"Some of these folks have queer ideas. One of our customers insisted on having all his books bound after the same pattern, and numbered. Sometime afterward a friend told him that people were asking if he kept a circulating library; so he had morocco labels stuck on over the figures. But this man, and I was all smoked up, and the water that ran off from the burnt shingles had soaked into me, too, and I was black as your hat. I wasn't used to taking cold water baths in January, but I washed up, put on my 'biled' shirt and went to bed. I hadn't been asleep ten minutes before the old gong struck again, and away we went to another fire. You ought to have seen that shirt when I got back! I've never worn a biled shirt since only when I go to funerals."

"Yes, you ought to be a fireman. I think you'd enjoy coming back from a fire with three or four o'clock in the morning with your clothes so stiff and your boots full of water. And I know that it would be just fun for you after that you'd get himing up by the fire to dry and had crawled into bed to get up and got into them again and go to another fire. Until we get used to it a few doses of that usually brings on sciatic rheumatism. The only trouble is most of us dies before we get used to it."—Detroit Free Press.

The Use of Money by Children.
 Children should be taught the use of money while under their parents' care and authority. A knowledge of its just value as a medium of procuring necessaries and luxuries is not intuitive in a child, and early training in that respect is of as great importance as any other branch of education.

I know of no better way than to allow young people a stated sum to be devoted to personal expenses, and teach them to live within that amount. Of course this applies to families that are in comfortable circumstances, and are able to have what is needful for their wants.

A girl who is trustworthy and obedient should be allowed to have money of her own under proper restrictions, and she will take great satisfaction in keeping an account of her expenditures in order to make both ends meet, and in planning how to make the very most of her money. Mistakes will sometimes be made, but is not that often the case with persons of mature judgment? and it only goes to prove that the training is necessary.

Over-running the allowance or getting into debt should not be allowed, even though on account of misadventure or error in judgment; it should involve self-denial to keep within the limits. Kindly advice and caution should be given to the parent.

It is of great importance to cultivate the habit of systematic benevolence; for if a girl knows the exact amount of her income she can easily calculate the proportion she wishes to devote to the Lord's work, or his poor, and if the sum be but a small one,
 the giving will bring a satisfaction that irregular or spasmodic gifts would not afford.

Parents, won't you consider this matter, and give the young folks a chance? The allowance may be monthly, and the amount would depend on the father's ability or generosity. Don't look away or wasted money, you would expect to spend a certain sum for each child during the year. Let such ones as are old enough exercise their own judgment, train their faculties, develop their skill and their feeling of proper independence by the management of the small sums intrusted to them, and they will gain wisdom for the wider sphere of manhood and womanhood. — Mary Winchester, in Obituary.

—Mr. A. R. Bardeau, the manager of the telephone system of this city, is to-day constructing a telephone line from the central office to the military camp, thus connecting the headquarters of the camp with the city lines.

—Officer McKinley arrested an overgrown tramp last night who claimed that he was sick—suffering from an attack of the ague. He was a native East Tennessee—the poorest clad specimen of a tramp that has appeared in the municipal court in a long time—he was given three days in the county jail.

—We understand that a couple of gentlemen accidentally upset a boat in which they were rowing up the river yesterday. The tip-over occurred near the brewery, above the railroad bridge, and had it not been for a lady on the opposite shore, who saw the accident and rowed out in a boat to their rescue, serious results would have happened.

—Sunday was a day long to be remembered by Christ church parish and others who joined the two able and eloquent sermons on the "Evidences of Christianity" by the Rev. Dr. Henry Spalding. Large congregations assembled both morning and evening, and the doctor's vigorous and masterly handling of his subject strengthened the faith of the faithful and could not fail to scatter the doubts of the halting and unbelieving.

—The firemen met again last night and decided to have the tournament some time in September, but the date has not been decided upon. The subscription to the fund have not reached the desired or required amount, but the committee hope to bring it up, and it looks favorable. The tournament officers will soon be appointed, and will probably be persons outside of the fire department. Citizens who have not subscribed to the fund and care to aid the boys in their enterprise should do so at once.—Bellevue Free Press.

—Hugh McGavock, Jr., a young man living on his father's farm northwest of the city, met with a painful accident Thursday evening and narrowly escaped being badly hurt if not killed. He had been reaping grain with a four horse team and had whitened the horses from the machine and started home, when the leaders of the team began to act badly, and were bound to turn into a corn field. He got hold of one of the unruly horses and in the attempt to give him a kick his foot became entangled in the harness and he was thrown to the ground. The horses then ran away dragging him a long distance before he could extricate himself. He was severely bruised and got a deep cut on one of his legs.—Bellevue Free Press.

CAMP PALMER.

Preparing the Camp for the Reception of the Soldier Boys.

Company Details at Work Staking Out the Camp Grounds.

The first regiment of Wisconsin National Guards, Colonel W. B. Britton, commanding, will go into camp in this city on Wednesday, August 8th. The location selected for the camp is the beautiful plot of ground belonging to the estate of the late Dr. F. H. Judd, just east of St. Mary's avenue, and fronting the railroad track. Quartermaster Thor. Judd is busy at work to-day, assisted by details from several of the companies, making arrangements for and laying out the camp. Lamp posts are being erected along Hickory street from Glen to St. Mary's avenue, for the purpose of lighting that street leading to the camp ground, by means of oil lamps.

The following is a complete list of the field, staff and non-commissioned staff of the regiment.

The camp will be christened "Camp Palmer," in honor of Dr. Henry Palmer, Surgeon General of the state.

THE NAPOLEON GUN.

A twelve-pound Napoleon gun arrived this morning from Madison, which is for use at the camp. In the language of the newly arrived Biberian, our citizens will have the pleasure of seeing and hearing the "gun go down with a bang," during the stay of the soldiers in camp. The gun will be fired at sunrise and sunset.

The following card was received from Captain H. A. Smith this morning: ROCKFORD, Aug. 4, 1893.

The arrangement now is for the Rifles to leave Geneva Friday night, make connections at Harvard with the Janesville train from Chicago arriving at Janesville at 8:15. If any change is made they will telegraph from Geneva. About 20 members will go up from Rockford Saturday morning, those that could not go into camp; there will be all told 40 or 50 strong. Yours in a hurry, HARRY.

The great day in camp will be on Saturday.

GOVERNOR'S DAY.

When Governor Hask with his entire staff will be present to review the regiment.

DR. J. H. PATTISON'S POWDER is a strictly pure powder. It is made from grape cream tartar and Bi-carb soda only. They manufacture their soda expressly for it, and as it is put together on chemical principles, we claim that it has no equal on the market. Try it! Test it! and you will use no other.

Nip and Tack.

Harry Webber and his superb company of comedians will commence a season of four nights in Myers opera house, opening on Wednesday evening with the grand comedy of Nip and Tack, which is based upon the adventures of a pair of detectives, type of a class of keen-scented land-sharks common to our great cities. Although ostensibly partners, they are thrown on opposite sides of a "great case," and their strong disguise, fine subterfuges, drop laid traps, and bold strokes of judgment, result in a series of complications, dangers and situations, which for roving fun and probability, excel any comedy ever placed before the public. There is besides a strong vein of dramatic interest running throughout the entire play.

The Cleveland Plaindealer speaks of the appearance of Webber and his combination in that city as follows:

"There was uproarious laughter at the academy of music last night, over Webber's impersonation of 'Nip,' the detective, in the play of 'Nip and Tack.' What there is in the plot seems designed exclusively to bring out the adroitness of Nip and Tack, who are sharp practical fellows, and given to taking advantage of each other as well as their patrons. The fun is uproarious, and we have never heard more hearty explosions of laughter than we heard last night at the academy of music. All who would like to enjoy two hours of the jolliest kind of fun should not fail to be on hand to-night, for the play will be repeated."

No specific for local soil ailments can cope in popular favor with GREEN'S SUTHERLAND SOAP.

"HILL'S HAIR AND WHISKER DYE," 50 cents.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer registered 52 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 75 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer was 54 degrees above zero. Clear with northeast wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 54 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind.

Wish Bros. say that shingled bays are all the rage and that they cut them every day. They are much cooler besides save ladies good deal of trouble in hair dressing. Society ladies all wear shingled bangs.

BASE BALL.

Re-Organization of the Old Janesville Mutual Club.

Nearly all of the Janesville base ball players who engaged at the commencement of the season with the Northwestern league clubs have returned home, including Mr. John Morrissey, who has been umpiring. Various causes are assigned as a reason for the return of these players, the principal one being that the Janesville players were about the only ones who went east, or played with eastern men, and they were not given half a chance by their eastern companions to play their positions.

Mr. Morrissey returned home on last Friday, and has gone to work to re-organize the old Mutual club in this city, and hopes in a few days to have a good ball club in the field as there is in the state.

The following players have been secured, and will undoubtedly play in positions as noted:

Denis McGinley, p. Lyman Worban, s. s. John Doran, 1. f. Charley Evenson, change catcher and fielder.

O. Sutherland, c. f. Frank Gillespie, catcher and fielder. Frank Stronginton, 1. b. John Murray, 3d b.

M. Hunt, change pitcher and fielder. Mr. Morrissey says that a meeting will soon be held, probably on Wednesday evening, when the organization of the club will be completed, and arrangements made for a tour of the Northwest, including St. Paul.

We are glad that this move has been made, and hope the boys will soon have an opportunity to meet the ball clubs around Janesville, who are clamoring to beat anything that comes in their way, even the umpire.

GRIGGS' Glycerine Salve.

"The best on earth can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is sure cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds, and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, tetter and skin eruptions. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by Stearns & Baker.

The Minstrel.

Heywood's minstrel troupe will appear at the opera house to-morrow evening. It is not often that we are favored with a half show of such dimensions as to require a special car to carry the troupe and equipment. They have been almost everywhere, but not a word of adverse criticism has come to our notice. The more announcement of the fact is sure to pack the hall, for who are there among us who do not love to attend a first-class show. Go early and secure your seats, and thus avoid the rush.

Why Be Downcast.

"True, you are in a miserable condition—you are weak, pale and nervous. You cannot sleep at night, nor enjoy your waking hours; yet why lose heart? Get at the drugstore a bottle of Dr. J. H. Patterson's Blood Purifier. They will restore you to health and peace of mind. Sold by Palmer & Stevens and Stearns & Baker.

COLLIER'S LIQUID BERT TONIC imparts strength to body and mind. Take no other. Of Druggists.

The Board of Education.

The board of education held their regular monthly meeting in the city clerk's office on Saturday evening, President Wm. Ringer in the chair, and all the members of the board present.

The following persons were re-appointed juniors of the city school buildings for the ensuing year:

First ward—Samuel H. Stone. Second ward—George Krouse. Fourth ward—Patrick Kelly. Fifth ward—Richard Skelly. Central building—Lewis Wilbur.

Miss Emma Howell declined the appointment of teacher of the first grammar department, the board deferring filling the vacancy until the next meeting.

No other business of importance to the public was transacted.

The board adjourned until next Saturday evening.

Our readers will find all the medicines advertised in this paper at Prentice & Evenson's drug store, opposite the postoffice. They keep all the principal patent medicines in the market, and doubtless have the largest stock in the city.

There is but one N. K. Brown's Ess. Jamaica Ginger. It costs 75 cents and always conquers pain.

Tobacco Sales.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J. S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, expressly for the Janesville Gazette, for the week ending August 6, 1893:

20 cases, crop of 1882, Pennsylvania, at 8 to 9 cents.

15 cases, crop of 1881, Pennsylvania, at 5 to 12 cents.

100 cases, crop of 1882, New York, at 12 to 15 cents.

Total cases, 60.

The True Test.

If a man is hungry within an hour more or less after a meal he is a dyspeptic. It shows his stomach is not able to dispose of what he has eaten, but to be again, and thus impose more work is absurdity. Take Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic which cures dyspepsia, and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder troubles. It is a perfect tonic, appetizer, blood purifier, a sure cure for ague and malarial diseases. Price 50 cents, of Stearns & Baker.

—Rev. Dr. Henry Spalding, who has been visiting friends in this city for the past week, left to-day for Milwaukee, en route for his home in Jersey City.

—Mr. Cornelius Washington, formerly an old resident of this city, but who went south after the war and settled in Texas is back again, shaking hands with old friends.

—Mr. O. W. Demis, of the Janesville silver plate company, started for St. Louis this afternoon, in the interest of the company. He will be absent about two weeks.

—Ex Chief Engineer R. P. Young, who has been employed in Rockford for the past year, was in the city to-day, making arrangements for the removal of his family to the Forest city.

—Captain Phineas Newcross, who went to Brooklyn, New York, some three months ago to engage in business, arrived at his old home on Saturday evening, and is cordially greeted by everybody.

—Mr. Wm. and Mrs. May Pond, with several others have gone to the romantic banks of Sugar river, Green county, for a two-weeks' camp. The Misses May, of Fort Atkinson, and Mr. Fred Colvin, of Milwaukee, are of the party.

—Mrs. L. F. Patton, and Mrs. H. M. Wheeler, of Boston, went to Madison to-day on a visit. Mrs. Wheeler's husband was the late Major Wheeler, of the 5th Wisconsin infantry. She has been in the city a few days visiting Judge Patton's family.

—From the Madison Democrat of Sunday morning: "A happy party from Lakeside took in the city's favorite drives yesterday. The party consisted of Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. J. H. Kinney, Mrs. Thor. Judd, Miss Richardson and the Misses Zeininger, all of Janesville."

—Dr. James Mills formerly of this city, and now assistant physician in the Northern hospital for the insane, at Elgin, spent Sunday in Janesville, and returned home this morning. Dr. Mills is meeting with flattering success in the responsible position he now holds, and this success comes of thorough study, constant industry, and excellent ability. His many friends in this city will be pleased to see that good fortune sticks as close to the doctor as a brother.

—Congressman A. H. Pettibone, of Greenfield, Tennessee, was in the city to-day, on a brief visit to Dr. J. H. Warren. Mr. Pettibone was formerly of this state, and was a captain in the 20th Wisconsin during the war. After the close of the struggle he settled in Greenfield, Tennessee, the home of President Johnson, married his wife there, and three years ago was elected to the 47th congress, and was re-elected last fall by an increased majority. He formerly lived in Green county, and has many relatives there whom he has been visiting.

PLEASE NOTICE.—My stage will leave Shippore every morning during the month of August on the arrival of the Janesville accommodation for Porter's Park, Geneva Lake, and return in the evening in time to connect with the same train north. Large parties from Janesville can best be accommodated on Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.
